VOL. XXI. CHICAGO: SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1868. NUMBER 263.

WASHINGTON.

A Flight of Rumors Outstrilling Prominent Military Changes.

The Garrison at the Capital being Rapidly Strengthened.

Another Proposition for the Equalization of Soldiers' Bounties.

Text of the Treaty for the Cession of the Islands of St. Thomas and St. John's.

Colonel J. O. P. Burnside, of Illinois, Nominated for Second Auditor.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, March 21.

The Republican editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, who is also a correspondent of the New York Herald, has been in the White House star, in that General Grant is to be relieved from command of the Army, and ordered to the Pacific coast, where he will assume a supervisory control over the military affairs of the Division of the Pacific, Major General Sheridan succeeding to the command of the Division of the Missouri. This story has been going the rounds of the Washington clubs and hotels for the last two days, and has been generally credited. It is said that General Halleck is about to resign his position as Commander of the Department of the Atlantic, the General Sheridan will succeed him. It is also said that General Halleck is about to resign his position as Commander of the Department of the Pacific, and that General Sheridan will strongly protest against being sent to the Pacific coast. It is also said that Sheridan will strongly protest against being sent to the Pacific coast. It is also said that Sheridan will strongly protest against being sent to the Pacific coast.

The Election in Tennessee—The New Constitution Probably Adopted.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NASHVILLE, Saturday, March 21.

The returns from the election on Thursday last, for the adoption or rejection of the new Constitution, are coming in very slowly. The Governor's office is closed to-day, and no returns have been received. The Secretary of State has received returns from 30 counties, which show a majority of 3,000 for the new Constitution. The returns from 30 counties will probably be received to-morrow. The Secretary of State has received returns from 30 counties, which show a majority of 3,000 for the new Constitution.
